

GEMINI AWARDS RULES & REGULATIONS

Recommendation Form

The Academy is dedicated to addressing the evolving needs of its constituents and the industry it serves. Recommendations may be made for the Gemini Awards as follows:

RECOMMENDATIONS:

Members in active good standing of any branch of the Academy may only make recommendations. A concise rationale and at least 3 (three) additional letters of support from Academy members and/or industry professionals are required to accompany a Recommendation.

The Academy's Awards Director receives all Recommendations to compile for Gemini Rules & Regulations Committees. If the respective Committee approves a Recommendation, it will be presented to the Academy's Board of Directors for final approval and you will be notified.

RATIONALE:

Please provide a rationale for your Recommendation. If requesting a new category, please provide a description of the category, a list of proposed eligible credits, judging criteria, as well as a list of examples of types of show that would potentially enter into the category and what current academy branch should be eligible to vote for this category. Please reference any current Gemini Awards Rule if it should pertain to your Recommendation with your Rationale.
